DESDE 1870

GRANADO, THE BRAZILIAN MYTHICAL BRAND

Founded in 1870 in Rio de Janeiro, Granado Farmácias is the most traditional cosmetics and pharmaceutical company in Brazil. By manipulating extracts of plants and herbs grown on the farm of its founder, the Portuguese José Antonio Coxito Granado, the brand quickly conquered illustrious customers such as the Emperor D. Pedro II.

The quality and the efficiency of its products very quickly led him to confer to Granado the title of Official Pharmacy of the Imperial Family of Brazil, as of 1880. In-depth knowledge of the properties of medicinal plant extracts is still today the basis for the development of new products.

With more than 80 concept stores and distribution in selected retailers, Granado is present in the homes and memories of all Brazilians.

PERFUMARIA PHEBO

PHEBO, A SYMBOL OF FINE PERFUMERY

Founded in 1930 in Belém, in the heart of the Amazon, by Portuguese cousins Antonio and Mario Santiago whose vision was to create a high-end perfumery, with striking and original scents.

Phebo, Greek name of the God of the Sun, was chosen to symbolize the birth of a new era in Brazilian fine perfumery.

Emblem of originality and luxury perfume, Odor de Rosas soap, oval in shape and transparent and dark appearance, offers a unique and distinguished combination of exotic scents that leaves no one indifferent.

PHEBO

TRIO ODOR DE ROSAS

Criado em 1930, o sabonete Odor de Rosas é um clássico da Phebo e pioneiro na perfumaria de luxo brasileira. A base vegetal de glicerina, o formato oval com coloração escura e a alta concentração de fragrância deram início ao que seria a assinatura da marca: criações ousadas com embalagens sofisticadas e perfume marcante.

Co-Branding Partnerships with Brazilian designers

‘Brazianness’ united Phebo Perfumery and Isolda. True to their roots, the brands were inspired by their cultural universe to create a fragrance that conveys the colors, flavors and exuberance of their country. The richness of Brazilian flora and fruit is represented by the cashew, which is the protagonist of Cajueiro perfume and prints. The original and fresh accords explore the femininity of the modern woman and transport us on an olfactory and affective journey, characteristic of Phebo fragrances.

Co-Branding Partnerships with Brazilian designers

Bahia perfume was the starting point for the collaboration between the designer Julia Gastin and Phebo Perfumery. The fragrance transports us to paradisiacal beaches, coconut trees and sunny summer days. Julia Gastin accessories are handmade by local artisans that manually transform wooden beads, straws and shells into desired pieces that exploit the good energies of Bahian culture.

21 thousand handmade pieces by 50 artisans from Rio de Janeiro were crafted following the principles of slow fashion.

ZIMBRO

Zimbro is a touch of freshness on a hot summer day. This scent was inspired by a refreshing, modern beverage. As in a gin tonic, the “zimbro,” or juniper berry, lends a striking, aromatic flavor, in perfect harmony with the fizzy citrus note of grapefruit. A hint of spice and woody Base Notes blended with cognac are the finishing touches to this invigorating, sophisticated formulation.
